Topic: Why?

- Why? The Rationale and Case for Realignment
Background

- In 2013, California adopted the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF), a sweeping overhaul of school funding systems, prioritizing support for Low-income, English learner, and Foster Youth students.

- In the fall of 2016, the State Board of Education approved a new accountability system formally moving California away from standardized testing as a sole indicator of educational success towards a multiple measure-based system of accountability and continuous improvement.

- These changes coupled with the passage at the federal level of the Every Student Succeeds Act by President Obama in 2015, gives California a unique opportunity to align state and federal education policies to develop an integrated local, state, and federal accountability and continuous improvement system grounded in LCFF.
Teaming Up for Success!

Our Charge:

- Promote coherence across programs to better serve the needs of California’s multidimensional local educational agencies (LEAs), schools, educators, and students, in a way that exemplifies the California Way.

- Continue to build on our team’s strengths to create continuously more effective systems and supports for public education in California.
Teaming Up for Success!

Why now? Strategic Action is Necessary Now To:

- Accelerate creation of SSPI-inspired Team-based systems focused on service and support
- Realize potential of LCFF (service and support for local control)
  ✓ Maximize CDE capacity to contribute to continuous improvement systems –
- Maximize opportunities afforded by ESSA

Draft
The Realigned CDE Must:

- Reflect the "California Way" and the Department’s mission;
- Facilitate the “vertical” and “horizontal” integration of key department functions, services, and priorities;
- Enable implementation of high-priority recommendations emerging from LCFF, LCAP, Blueprint 2.0, subsequent Task Force work, and ESSA State Plan process;
- Reflect California’s shift to local control, recent adoption of LCFF Evaluation Rubrics, and the shift to support of continuous improvement.
Teaming Up for Success!

The Realigned CDE Must:

✓ Respond to changing conditions, resources, and staff feedback;
✓ Balance work loads; and
✓ Convey that each member of the CDE team (current and future) is valued.

- Methodology and Theory of Change
We seek to implement:

- Blueprint 2.0 recommendation 3.14: In order to better serve and support districts and LEAs, work toward alignment of California’s system of learning supports…for optimal collaboration and efficiencies. Continue work to build the CDE’s capacity for service and support.
Building Capacity for Continuous Improvement

California must now focus on Continuous Improvement…

- “…The board must move now from the back end of accountability to the front end of capacity.”
