

CALIFORNIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
CAREER-VOCATIONAL DIVISION

COMMUNITY CLASSROOM AND COOPERATIVE VOCATIONAL EDUCATION
TITLE 5 ANALYSIS

ITEM	COMMUNITY CLASSROOM	COOPERATIVE VOCATIONAL ED	COMMENTS
Definition Title 5 ref. 10080-10100	Community classroom is an instructional methodology which expands classroom instruction through unpaid on-the-job experiences	Cooperative vocational education is an instructional methodology which correlates classroom instruction with paid on-the-job experiences	Neither community classroom nor cooperative vocational education are instructional programs . They are methodologies utilized to teach students occupational skills.
Credit Title 5 ref. 10081-10102	The evaluation and rating of each student's achievement in community classroom is based on participation in related classroom instruction and unpaid on-the-job training.	The evaluation and rating of each student's achievement in cooperative vocational education is based on participation in related classroom instruction and paid on-the-job training.	The manager of the community classroom assists the instructor with evaluation. The employer in cooperative vocational education assists the instructor with evaluation.
Student Qualifications Title 5 ref. 10082 – 10103	Students must be concurrently enrolled in a vocational education course/program.	Student must (be): - at least 16 years of age - a full-time student - have parent approval if under 18 - concurrently enrolled in a vocational course	Full time student in CVE means a student enrolled in one of the following: - continuation/alternative ed - ROC/P (secondary and adult) - regular school for minimum day - approved summer school
Teacher Responsibilities Title 5 ref. 10083-01004	Community classroom teacher provides related classroom instruction and supervision/coordination	Cooperative vocational educational teacher provides related classroom instruction	Only the classroom teacher of community classroom and cooperative vocational education can provide supervision.

Selection and Approval of Training Station
Title 5 ref. 10086-10107

There is adequate equipment, materials, and other resources to provide an appropriate learning opportunity.

Provide a minimum of 8 hours of paid employment per week.
Employer provides Workers Compensation Insurance.

Training Agreement
Title 5 ref. 10087-10108

Joint Venture Training Agreement exists between local education

Training Agreement established between employer and local education agency.

Training Plan
Title 5 ref. 10087-10108

An individualized training plan for each pupil is prepared and includes:
- Competencies to be acquired by the student
- Expected duration of training for each competency
- Whether competency is taught in classroom or on-the-job
- Verification that student has acquired the competency

An individualized training plan for each pupil is prepared and includes:
- Competencies to be acquired by the student
- Expected duration of training for each competency
- Whether competency is taught in classroom or on-the-job
- Verification that student has acquired the competency

Competencies identified in the training plan must relate directly to the instructional objectives of the approved course.

Supervision/Training Site Title 5
ref. 10088/10109

Only community classroom teacher who provides related classroom instruction can provide supervision.

Only cooperative vocational education teacher who provides Related classroom instruction can provide supervision.