Gordillo named Executive Director-Human Resources at County Office of Education

SAN JOSE, CA – Philip J. Gordillo has been named Executive Director – Human Resources for the Santa Clara County Office of Education.

Gordillo has been leading Human Resources on a non-permanent basis since July 1, 2010, with responsibility for both Human Resources and the Personnel Commission.

Effective July 1, 2013, Gordillo will permanently assume the role at the SCCOE of overseeing certificated and classified personnel, employment services, employee benefits, credentialing, unemployment insurance, work-place compliance, and workforce and organization development.

He first came to the SCCOE in 1996 as Director of Classified Personnel Services. Prior to that, he worked in Human Resources at Foothill–De Anza Community College District and Alum Rock Elementary School District.

Gordillo has a Master of Arts degree in Organizational Development from the University of Phoenix, and Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from California State University-Hayward.
