Watch the San Jose Mayoral Candidates' Forum on Education live on TV or the Web

SAN JOSE, CA – The San Jose Mayoral Candidates' Forum on Education will be broadcast live on CreaTV, Comcast Cable Channel 28, and will be streamed live online on the Santa Clara County Office of Education's website: www.sccoe.org. The time of the live event is from 10 a.m. to noon this Saturday, May 10. The event will be replayed on CreaTV on Saturdays at 10 a.m. and Mondays at 7:30 p.m., from May 17 through Election Day on June 3. The forum will also be available on demand on our website following the event.

Co-sponsored by the Santa Clara County Board of Education, the forum will address the educational needs of children and families across the city and provide voters with an opportunity to hear where the candidates stand on topics ranging from early education to the quality and results of the public school system. Make sure to tune in live from 10 a.m. to noon this Saturday, May 10 on CreaTV, Comcast Cable Channel 28, or www.sccoe.org to watch it online.

The forum will take place at the Mexican Heritage Plaza Pavilion located at 1700 Alum Rock Avenue in San Jose and is co-sponsored by Educate Our State, People Acting in Community Together (PACT) and Working Partnerships USA. All candidates in the San Jose Mayoral race have been invited to participate.
