3. Action Item

a. The adoption of the Opportunity Youth Academy Learning Continuity and Attendance Plan (LCP) 2020-2021 presented at the Opportunity Youth Academy September 10th Board meeting.

i. Revisions were made to the Mental Health section page 11:

1. Included more details and information on the action plans for our mental health services and wellness for this school year.
2. The therapists will provide wellness training and workshops to students and staff quarterly on:
 - a. Personal Health (food, nutrition, and exercise)
 - b. Emotional and Social Health (mental health and stress)
 - c. Mental Health awareness information will be disseminated to students and families addressing Coronavirus
3. Dr. Dewan asked to make reference in the Mental Health section that the employees of the Santa Clara County Office of Education receive information to address Social Emotional Wellness and address trauma through our Human Resources Department, Self-Insured Schools of California, and the Employee Assistance Program at 1-800-999-7222.
4. Check into enrolling our students into a Psychology course with SAITECH giving students the opportunity to not only learn Psychology, but a platform to discuss some of the stress they are currently experiencing.

Once references number 3 and 4 have been added, Dr. Dewan made the motion to adopt the Learning Continuity and Attendance Plan - Approved.
