Core Strand	Common Core Standard	Comments in reference to CA ELA standards
Literature	4. Describe how words and phrases (e.g., regular beats, alliteration, rhymes, repeated lines) supply rhythm and meaning in a story, poem, or song.	CCS include specificity not included in CA standards
	5. Describe the overall structure of a story, including describing how the beginning introduces the story and the ending concludes the action.	CA standards partially address this in 3.1 Literary Analysis – compare and contrast plots, settings, and characters presented by different authors
	6. Acknowledge differences in the points of view of characters, including by speaking in a different voice for each character when reading dialogue aloud.	Point of view in later grades of CA standards
	7. Use information gained from the illustrations and words in a print or digital text to demonstrate understanding of its characters, setting, or plot.	Digital text not mentioned in CA standards
	10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories and poetry, in the grades 2–3 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.	Grade 2-3 text complexity band is specific to the CCS; not part of CA standards
Informational Text	2. Identify the main topic of a multiparagraph text as well as the focus of specific paragraphs within the text.
	3. Describe the connection between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text.	CA Grade 5: Literary Response 3.0
	5. Know and use various text features (e.g., captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text efficiently.	CA includes diagram, chart, graph; CCS also includes captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons.
	7. Explain how specific images (e.g., a diagram showing how a machine works) contribute to and clarify a text.	CA does not reference images
	8. Describe how reasons support specific points the author makes in a text.
	9. Compare and contrast the most important points presented by two texts on the same topic.	CA Grade 4: 2.5 Comprehension

	10. By the end of year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 2–3 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.	Grade 2-3 text complexity band is specific to the CCS; not part of CA standards. Reference to history/social studies, science, and technical text not included in CA standards.
Foundational Skills	4. Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension. a. Read on-level text with purpose and understanding. b. Read on-level text orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings. c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.	CA standards do not specifically link fluency to supporting comprehension
Writing	1. Write opinion pieces in which they introduce the topic or book they are writing about, state an opinion, supply reasons that support the opinion, use linking words (e.g., because , and , also) to connect opinion and reasons, and provide a concluding statement or section.	CA standards do not include as much specificity (e.g., use linking words).
	2. Write informative/explanatory texts in which they introduce a topic, use facts and definitions to develop points, and provide a concluding statement or section.	CA standards –narrative and friendly letter at Grade 2; informative and explanatory not a focus at Gr. 2 of CA
	3. Write narratives in which they recount a well elaborated event or short sequence of events, include details to describe actions, thoughts, and feelings, use temporal words to signal event order, and provide a sense of closure.	CA standard focuses on sequence of events and story elements in Grade 2 but do not address temporal words to signal events and sense of closure
	5. With guidance and support from adults and peers, focus on a topic and strengthen writing as needed by revising and editing.	CA includes revising, not editing
	6. With guidance and support from adults, use a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.	CA does not reference use of digital tools
	7. Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., read a number of books on a single topic to produce a report; record science observations).	CA: Narrative description under Writing

		Applications 2.0 refers to research. No specific standard.
	8. Recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

2.0 Reading Comprehension	2.1 Understand and analyze the differences in structure and purpose between various categories of informational materials (e.g., textbooks, newspapers, instructional manuals, signs).	Reading Informational Text	10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, at the high end of the grades 4–5 text complexity band independently and proficiently.	Partial	CCS promotes reading various categories of informational text. Does not highlight analysis of differences in structure and purpose.
	2.2 Locate information by using a variety of consumer, workplace, and public documents.	Reading Informational Text	7. Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources, demonstrating the ability to locate an answer to a question quickly or to solve a problem efficiently.	Yes	CCS reference digital sources.

	2.3 Analyze text that uses the cause-and-effect organizational pattern.	Reading Informational Text	3. Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).	Yes	CCS and CA introduce cause and effect organizational pattern in previous grades reading standards: CCS 5 th 5. Compare and contrast the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in two or more texts. CA 4 th 2.6 Distinguish between cause and effect and fact and opinion in expository text.
	2.4 Identify and trace the development of an author's argument, point of view, or perspective in text.	Reading Informational Text	2. Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text. 6. Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.	Yes
	2.5 Understand and explain the use of a simple mechanical device by following technical directions.	Speaking and Listening		Partial	This standard is reflected in H/SS and S/T #3, in which students must be able to follow directions to describe a process. CCS requires presentations with claims and findings.
	2.6 Assess the adequacy, accuracy, and appropriateness of the author's evidence to support claims and assertions, noting instances of bias and stereotyping.	Reading Informational Text	8. Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims.	Yes

	1.3 Use strategies of note taking, outlining, and summarizing to impose structure on composition drafts.	Writing		Yes	The same standard is evident in CCS H/SS and S/T standard #9: Draw evidence from informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
Research and Technology	1.4 Identify topics; ask and evaluate questions; and develop ideas leading to inquiry, investigation, and research.	HSS/ Science Writing	7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.	Yes
	1.5 Give credit for both quoted and paraphrased information in a bibliography by using a consistent and sanctioned format and methodology for citations.	Writing Research to Build and Present Knowledge	8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, using search terms effectively; assess the credibility and accuracy of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and following a standard format for citation.	Yes	Similar CCS standard for H/SS and S/T.

	1.6 Create documents by using word-processing skills and publishing programs; develop simple databases and spreadsheets to manage information and prepare reports.	Writing-Production and Distribution of Writing	6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and link to and cite sources as well as to interact and collaborate with others, including linking to and citing sources.	Yes	The same standard is evident in H/SS and S/T.
Evaluation and Revision	1.7 Revise writing to improve organization and word choice after checking the logic of the ideas and the precision of the vocabulary.	Writing-Production and Distribution of Writing	5. With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on how well purpose and audience have been addressed.	Yes	The same standard is evident in H/SS and S/T.
2.0 Writing Applications	2.1 Write fictional or autobiographical narratives: a. Develop a standard plot line (having a beginning, conflict, rising action, climax, and denouement) and point of view. b. Develop complex major and minor characters and a definite setting. c. Use a range of appropriate strategies (e.g., dialogue; suspense; naming of specific narrative action, including movement, gestures, and expressions).	Writing-Text Types	3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, relevant descriptive details, and well-structured event sequences. a. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, and description, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. c. Use a variety of transition words, phrases, and clauses to convey sequence and signal shifts from one time frame or setting to another. d. Use precise words and phrases, relevant descriptive details, and sensory language to capture the action and convey experiences and events. e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on the narrated experiences or events.	Yes	The 5 applications in CA (narratives, response to literature, research reports, persuasive compositions, summaries) can be found within the 3 types of writing in the CCS, with the exception of expository compositions. CCS has 3 general categories (arguments to support specific claims, expository compositions, and narratives), and summaries are found in informational and literature standards, and reports are found in H/SS and S/T.

	2.2 Write responses to literature: a. Develop interpretations exhibiting careful reading, understanding, and insight. b. Organize interpretations around several clear ideas, premises, or images from the literary work. c. Justify interpretations through sustained use of examples and textual evidence.	Writing-Research	9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. a. Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Compare and contrast a fictional portrayal of a time, place, or character and a historical account of the same period as a means of understanding how authors of fiction use or alter history”). b. Apply grade 7 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g. “Trace and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, assessing whether the reasoning is sound and the evidence is relevant and sufficient to support the claims”).	Yes
	2.3 Write research reports: a. Pose relevant and tightly drawn questions about the topic. b. Convey clear and accurate perspectives on the subject. c. Include evidence compiled through the formal research process (e.g., use of a card catalog, Reader’s Guide to Periodical Literature , a computer catalog, magazines, newspapers, dictionaries). d. Document reference sources by means of footnotes and a bibliography.	Writing-Research	7. Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions for further research and investigation.	Yes	H/SS S/T # 7: Conduct short research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question), drawing on several sources and generating additional related, focused questions that allow for multiple avenues of exploration.
	2.4 Write persuasive compositions: a. State a clear position or perspective in support of a proposition or proposal. b. Describe the points in support of the proposition, employing well-articulated evidence. c. Anticipate and address reader concerns and counterarguments.	Writing-Text Types and Purposes	1. Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence. a. Introduce claim(s), acknowledge alternate or opposing claims, and organize the reasons and evidence logically. b. Support claim(s) with logical reasoning and relevant evidence, using accurate, credible sources and demonstrating an understanding of the topic or text. c. Use words, phrases, and clauses to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among claim(s), reasons, and evidence. d. Establish and maintain a formal style.	Yes	H/SS S/T: #1. Write arguments focused on discipline-specific content . a. Introduce claim(s) about a topic or issue, acknowledge and distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and organize the reasons and evidence logically. b. Support claim(s) with logical reasoning and relevant, accurate data and

Comprehension	1.1 Recognize strategies used by the media to inform, persuade, entertain, and transmit culture (e.g., advertisements; perpetuation of stereotypes; use of visual representations, special effects, language).	Listening/ Speaking	2. Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data. 5. Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.	Partial	Much of #1 is in preparation for collaborative class discussions. There is more emphasis on students' thoughtful verbalizing in the CCs. This only place 1a is addressed is in CA 1.1. CCS #2-The CCS deals with use of sources.
	1.2 Analyze the impact of media on the democratic process (e.g., exerting influence on elections, crating images of leaders, shaping attitudes) at the local, state, and national levels.		2. 	1.13 Analyze the four basic types of persuasive speech (e.g., propositions of fact, value, problem or policy) and understand the similarities and differences in their patterns of organization and the use of persuasive language, reasoning, and proof.		3. Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.	Partial	CCS #3 –There is no direct reference to types of persuasive speeches in this CC, past the point of evaluating a speaker's point of view.
	1.14 Analyze the techniques used in media messages for a particular audience and evaluate their effectiveness (e.g., Orson Welles' radio broadcast "War of the Worlds").		2. Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data. 5. Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.	Yes	CA 1.14 asks students to evaluate effectiveness, as it relates to the speaker's audience. This is not stated in this CCS.
