

Proclamation

City of Gilroy, California

WHEREAS, the Council for Art Education administers Youth Art Month on a national level and thousands of schools participate; and

WHEREAS, the Santa Clara County Board of Education has recognized March as Youth Arts Month and is committed to supporting the arts to inspire and prepare students for success in the 21st century and allowing them to develop as productive, contributing members of a strong community, and

WHEREAS, we share the vision of ensuring that students have access to high quality arts education that is culturally relevant and inclusive in all forms as part of a comprehensive education that sparks curiosity, imagination, creativity, and joy; and

WHEREAS, according to the California Department of Education, Fine Arts are taught in almost 60,000 classes in Santa Clara County. Studies have proven that arts learning strategies and arts integration help teachers to recognize and build upon critical thinking skills, curiosity, flexibility, communication, innovation, collaboration and are the traits required for post-secondary and workplace success; and

WHEREAS, each March Arts Education is celebrated in local schools, school districts, community arts organizations, and larger communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Marie Blankley, Mayor of the City of Gilroy, on this 28th day of February, along with my colleagues on the City Council, do hereby proclaim the month of March 2022 as

Youth Arts Month
