Words from the Arts Coordinator: A Great Time for Arts Education

Happy holiday season! We are in an amazing time of possibility in terms of support for arts education in our state.

Here are a few highlights:

Arts, Music & Instructional Materials Discretionary Block Grant Funds are coming to school districts this month. See below for more information.

2023 ¡Viva el mariachi! Showcase. Calling all youth mariachi and ballet folklórico groups in Santa Clara County schools! We are inviting groups to perform at our April 5 Showcase! See below for more details.

Proposition 28 Passed! Develop strategic arts plans, and explore ways to build arts education in your districts. Stay connected as I work on your behalf to navigate this new landscape of funding.

Partner Corner As always, we are grateful to our partner organizations and are here to support arts educators and administrators in K-12 schools in Santa Clara County. There's a robust Partner Corner this month. Please contact me if I can be of assistance in any arts education-related matters.

Have a wonderful holiday break and we'll see you back in the new year.

Arts Technical Assistance/Professional Learning

As the Arts Coordinator, I support schools and districts by offering technical assistance and conducting professional learning sessions on the strategic arts plans, California Arts Standards, the Arts Framework, and Universal Design for Learning, arts integration, arts equity, funding, arts education infrastructure, ELO-P, and arts after-school, and other arts-related topics. Feel free to contact me should you require any training related to those topics as well as training specifically for arts teachers in your district. Feel free to contact me at sfojas@sccoe.org.

State and Federal Funding for the Arts

First Apportionment of Funding for The Arts, Music, and Instructional Materials Discretionary Block Grant

Sacramento, CA - The California Department of Education (CDE) has sent the first apportionment to the State Controller's Office for payment of the Arts, Music, and Instructional Materials Discretionary Block Grant. This apportionment, in the amount of $1,780,443,075, is made from the state General Fund pursuant to Section 134 of Assembly Bill (AB) 181 (Chapter 52, Statutes of 2022), as amended by Section 56 of AB 185 (Chapter 571, Statutes of 2022). Funding is provided to county offices of education, school districts, charter schools, and state special schools to obtain standards-aligned professional development and instructional materials in specified areas, obtain professional development on improving school culture, develop diverse and culturally relevant book collections, operational costs, and purchase COVID personal protective equipment.

The remaining funds will be released in Spring 2023. For more information about this apportionment, please visit the Arts, Music, and Instructional Materials Discretionary Block Grant funding results web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/fo/r14/amimbg22res.asp>, where the letter and schedule for this apportionment are posted.

Additional information regarding the Arts, Music, and Instructional Materials Discretionary Block Grant is available on the CDE web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/ca/amimbg.asp>. For questions regarding programmatic requirements, use of funds, and expenditure reporting, please contact the Curriculum Frameworks and Instructional Resources Division at CFIRD@cde.ca.gov.

For questions regarding the determination of allocation amounts and the apportionment of funds, please contact Julie Klein Briggs, Education Fiscal Services Consultant, at JBriggs@cde.ca.gov, or Keith Smith, Education Fiscal Services Administrator, at KSmith@cde.ca.gov.

Proposition 28 FAQs

Proposition 28: The Arts and Music in Schools Funding and Accountability Act

The California County Superintendents Arts Initiative has prepared a one-page handout on The Arts and Music in Schools Funding and Accountability Act which is now available. The Arts Initiative is also working with the CISC Arts Subcommittee to develop a summary of questions and some related talking points for use when responding to inquiries from the field. This resource will be available soon.

The second document is a resource released by CreateCA in collaboration with the Santa Clara County Office of Education listing all the state and federal funding sources which are potential funding sources for arts education in your district.

Arts & Education Programs for Students at Montalvo Arts Center

Montalvo Arts Center

At Montalvo, we believe that the arts foster greater cognitive, social, and emotional capacity. As a multidisciplinary organization, we present relevant, responsive, and compelling opportunities to explore the visual arts, music, theatre, poetry, dance, design, and more. Our offerings provide quality learning experiences for all grades and skill levels, and celebrate the creative spirit, engage the imagination, and develop the artist in all of us.

PERFORMING ARTS SERIES FOR STUDENTS (PASS)

Students are invited to come to Montalvo Arts Center to experience the energy of live performance through dance, drama, and theatre in our intimate 300-seat Carriage House Theatre. Our shows, featuring performances by world-class local artists, are an excellent exposure to the arts for elementary-school-age students and a perfect launching point for classroom and homeschool curriculum. Our spring 2023 season (pictured above) includes Farima Dance Company, NewGround Theatre Dance Company, and Folclorico Colibri.

FIELD TRIPS

The historic site of Montalvo Arts Center serves as a hub for art and culture in the community, with a mission to enrich people's lives, spark necessary conversations, and inspire creativity. Come join us on a guided outdoor tour through our sculpture-filled grounds, Italianate garden, and artist residency studios. Field trips are approximately 45 minutes to 1 hour, and can be customized to your classroom and students' needs.

Stanford Live: Student Matinees and Teacher Workshops

Stanford Live's student matinees and teacher workshop series are back for the 2022–23 school year. Building on our season theme of Place and Healing, we'll have opportunities to experience artists and art forms from around the world, from a concert of global percussion to a multimedia work exploring the cultures of the Mekong Delta.

We'll also support your professional learning with a new series of teacher workshops, in-person and online. Some of the Bay Area's leading teaching artists will share methods for integrating multiple art forms into your teaching. And a special series on connections between the arts, sustainability, and wellness, kicking off on October 9, will bring healing and joy to both you and your students.

Matinee tickets are just $8, with scholarships and bus subsidies available.
