Exploring Alternative CTE Models for Alternative Education Students

What can we do to best serve incarcerated youth within our alternative education settings when the limited time does not allow for a traditional 2-3 yearlong course pathway?

At Santa Clara County Office of Education's Blue Ridge School, we are putting the emphasis on certifications and pre-apprenticeships when it comes to incarcerated students at promise.

In conjunction with this "training center" approach, we are working closely with industry partners to make sure the training is relevant to labor demand, and to develop pipelines for students to enter the workforce and college programs of study with an emphasis on apprenticeships and other applied learning opportunities.

COLLABORATOR OF THE MONTH

SCCOE CTE Collaborator of the Month is LiUNA, the Laborers' International Union of North America.

LiUNA has been an awesome industry partner for our incarcerated students at Blue Ridge. This program prepares students in many certifications, including OSHA 10, MC3, CPR/First Aid, and Hazardous Waste.

"LiUNA is a powerhouse of workers who are proud to build the United States and Canada. A half-million strong, we are united through collective bargaining agreements which help us earn family-supporting pay, good benefits and the opportunity for advancement and better lives. LIUNA members are a skilled and experienced union workforce trained to work safely in the construction and energy industries. Members build infrastructure - from roads, bridges, and transit to schools and skyscrapers. They are certified to install rainwater catchment systems and trained to build water and sewer systems. Members also work in every area of the energy sector. . ."
