TO: Santa Clara County Board of Education

FROM: Angelica Ramsey, Ed.D., Chief Academic Officer, Educational Services Branch
       Diego Arancibia, Director, ASAPconnect

VIA: Jon R. Gundry, County Superintendent of Schools

SUBJECT: Request approval for ASAPconnect to accept Non Competitive Grant to provide professional development offerings and convene technical assistance related to character development programs from the S. D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation

Associated Goal
Provide support to districts, communities, schools and students

Background
Santa Clara County Office of Education is authorized to receive $250,000 for a twelve month grant to support four distinct but interrelated approaches that will develop hubs of innovation and aims to integrate character development into the out-of-school-time field. Each of these approaches is distinct in their scope and implementation, yet all support and utilize character development. The four proposed approaches are:

1. Strengths Based Institute training
2. Heart of Coaching training
3. Positive Behavioral Interventions & Supports (PBIS) pilot cohort training and coaches network
4. Youth Development Institute research and development with a possible pilot training
