

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING FRED KOREMATSU DAY

SANTA CLARA COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION
RESOLUTION No. 2273-1

WHEREAS, Saturday, January 30, 2021, is designated as Fred Korematsu Day of Civil Liberties and the Constitution. Fred Korematsu Day recognizes the extraordinary civil rights activist and advocate; and

WHEREAS, Fred T. Korematsu was born in Oakland, California, on January 30, 1919, to Japanese immigrant parents. His refusal to enter Japanese internment camps during World War II, his subsequent arrest and conviction, and the issues raised by the U.S. Supreme Court Case, Korematsu v. United States, stand as civil rights advocacy landmarks; and

WHEREAS, Fred T. Korematsu remained a civil rights activist throughout his life, and in 1998 he was awarded the nation's highest civilian honor, the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Bill Clinton. In 2011, the State of California passed the Fred Korematsu Day bill marking the first time in the United States that a day was named after an Asian American of Japanese ancestry; and

WHEREAS, to echo the importance of civic duty, multiple cities within Santa Clara County support civic engagement and dispositions of civic learning and participation amongst youth. Cities such as San Jose provide students with the opportunity to partake in the Youth Commission, which is recognized as the official advisory group to the Mayor and City Council regarding the development of policies and recommendations affecting youth; and

WHEREAS, social justice issues continue to be in the forefront of the country's consciousness and our local communities, the life of Fred T. Korematsu can be a valuable instructional tool when teaching our youth about civil rights, advocacy, and civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, the Santa Clara County Office of Education (SCCOE) offers programs such as the Power of Democracy that promotes civic engagement opportunities amongst students in Santa Clara County and focuses on the importance of voting and being an informed citizen, which have a significant and lifelong impact on the civic engagement and advocacy of youth; and

WHEREAS, the SCCOE is committed to improving student equity and access to high-quality education, to providing quality support to districts, schools, students, and communities; as well as being a premier service organization; and,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Santa Clara County Board of Education and the County Superintendent of Schools recognizes January 30, 2021, as Fred Korematsu Day; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the SCCOE urges school districts in Santa Clara County to observe Fred Korematsu Day with recognizing the importance of preserving civil liberties.
