The Santa Clara County Office of Education (SCCOE) is committed to transforming education through leadership, service, and advocacy. We pride ourselves on inspiring and promoting student and public school success. We strive to support all students and to deliver the highest quality services.

A vital piece of that support is our auxiliary staff. You are an important part of our continued efforts to provide services with the highest moral, legal, and ethical principles. We thank you for contributing your talents and experiences to the SCCOE.

Thank you.
