September 2020

Dear Participant,

Thank you for taking part in F3 Law's recent Title IX Initial Compliance Training. We appreciate your time and attention and hope that you found the event informative.

You should have received a PDF of the PowerPoint slides that were presented during the training you attended in an earlier email, but we are including them as an attachment to this message as well. The 2020 Title IX Regulations require that the materials used to train Title IX personnel be posted to your district's website. The attached PowerPoint slides are in a format that can be posted to your district's website consistent with this requirement.

As a follow up, we gathered questions posed during our recent trainings and have responded to the commonly asked questions in the attached Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) document.

Also, we want to update you on some other resources we have available:

- TITLE IX TOOLKIT - Digital toolkit complete with templates for the completing the entire grievance process required by the new regulations. These materials will be delivered electronically following the trainings. (If you have already purchased the toolkit, it will be sent via email by September 28, 2020.)
- COMPREHENSIVE TITLE IX TRAINING – Includes attendance at the Title IX Initial Compliance Training and all Title IX team role trainings for (Investigator, Coordinator, Decisionmaker/Appeal Decisionmaker, AND Informal Resolution Facilitator).
- TITLE IX ROLES TRAINING - Includes attendance at the Title IX Initial Compliance Training and one role training of your choice (Investigator, Coordinator, Decisionmaker/Appeal Decisionmaker, OR Informal Resolution Facilitator). Recommended for Title IX team members unable to go through comprehensive training and who will only perform one of the required roles on the Title IX team. Not recommended for Title IX Coordinators.

In case any members of your district's Title Team were unable to attend Title IX Initial Compliance Training when you attended, we will be offering another session on October 6, 2020. Compliance training is required for all Title IX team members. Title IX Initial Compliance training must be completed before any of the individual roles trainings listed above.
