 Hearing of Persons Desiring to Address the Commission to Present Petitions
 Dan Mason, spoke on behalf of himself and all the employees who were part of the classification and compensation study that was completed in March 2013. Mr. Mason provided a timeline of his request for reclassification which began almost two years ago and his participation in the classification and compensation study which began in March 2012. In conclusion he had several questions for the Commission including why the process has taken so long, why have the new job descriptions and salary schedules not been presented to the Commission, why has there been a lack of ‘official’ communication from Classified Personnel, and who is ultimately in charge of the reclassification and job classification process?
