CLEAR INDUCTION – General and Special Education Teachers

The EPIC Clear Induction Credential Program is designed to provide an option for teachers to clear their preliminary credentials through a CTC accredited program. The clear induction program provides a two-year, individualized, job-embedded system of mentoring, support and professional learning that can begin in the teacher’s first year of teaching.

The candidate is matched with a mentor(s) within 30 days of admission into the program according to credentials held, grade level and/or subject area, as appropriate to the participating teacher’s employment.

The Clear Induction Program is based on the Inquiry Cycle of Plan, Teach, Reflect, Apply. The Action Research will be practical and intended to address a specific problem in a classroom, school or community. It is a cyclical not linear process. It is focused on the “how to” approach to solving a problem. Within this cycle is
- Inquiry into Teaching and Learning
- Data Collection: Assessment of Teaching and Learning
- Data Collection: What is my Context?

In the two year program there is a portfolio which covers all of the California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTPs) and is comprised of the elements of the Inquiry Cycles, the Individual Learning Plan (ILP) (developed within the first 60 days) and Reflective Evidence. The Clear Induction Candidate has, on average, 1 hour of regular weekly contact with their coach for individualized support and mentoring.

Candidates will be expected to submit and annotate multiple video observations.

There will be online Collaboratives during which clear candidates will discuss their ILPs and present their cycles of inquiry to each other as part of their collaborative community of practice.

The Individualized Learning Plan (ILP) is established to develop goals that aligned with the CSTPs. ILPs may not be used for the purposes of evaluation by the employing district.

Requirements

Applicants to the Clear Induction Program are required to provide
- Proof a Preliminary Education Specialist Credential
- Verification of employment, or offer of employment, in the credential to be cleared.
- If you have a Level I Preliminary Education Specialist Credential you need to take a CTC approved course in the following areas (courses to be completed by the end of the program):
  - Health Education*: Complete a course in Health Education, including but not limited to, nutrition; the physiological and sociological effects of alcohol, narcotic and drug abuse; and the use of tobacco. This requirement must include training in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) that covers infant, child, and adult CPR skills.
Computer Education*: Complete a course in Computer Education, including instruction in general and specialized skills in the use of computers in educational settings (For more info:
http://www.ctc.ca.gov/credentials/leaflets/cl808c.pdf)

Early Completion Option (ECO)

pace than the full two years generally required for completion of the professional teacher induction components. This option is made available to all participants if the following criteria are met:

- Eligible according to legislated criteria listed below
- Demonstrates knowledge, skills, abilities and competencies required of all teacher candidates who complete the full-length program

Eligibility

The Participating teacher must hold a Preliminary Education Specialist Credential. The intent of the law is to serve exceptional experienced candidates. If, after reviewing the criteria, the Participating Teacher feels the criteria are met, an application may be submitted to request ECO status.

Criteria

California teachers with:

- Two or more years of verified experience as teacher of record
- Rigorous exceptional evaluations from site administrators

Out of State Teachers with:

- Two or more years of verified experience as teacher of record
- Rigorous exceptional evaluations from site administrators

Interested participants submit a packet with the following information to the EPIC Program Office:

1. ECO Application
2. Two letters of recommendation, including one from the current site administrator
3. Exceptional performance evaluations from previous two years

  portfolio and a Colloquium presentation

Documentation
• An application signed by the Credentialing Programs Director or Assistant Director and the Participating Teacher (PT) that indicates that he/she is participating in ECO and has agreed to the above participation requirements for completion
• The form also indicates that the PT will be monitored during the year and if the above requirements have not been met, he/she will be required to participate in the complete second year of the program in order to successfully complete and be recommended for the Professional Clear Credential
• The program maintains information on the number and progress of ECO participants
• The EPIC Induction Director or Assistant Director signs the ECO Completion Form
ECO Candidates are expected to complete all of the requirements and hours of professional development for the two year program in one year.
Packet submission Deadline is no later than October 14th.

Course Competencies

Course assessment methods will be created by the instructors of each course and will follow normal expected college-level assessments.

Participants will complete an ePortfolio, which will consist of reflections on progress toward each TPE or CSTP and end-of-the-program reflection focused on growth in all standards. Each course has learner outcomes as a result of “unpacking” TPEs and CSTPs on which each is based. In addition, each course will support student learning through the use of formative and summative assessments.

Evaluation of Candidate Teaching Performance

The performance of teacher candidates, and those clearing their credential(s), will be guided by and evaluated at least annually through an analysis of the ePortfolio by a team of EPP designated coaches and/or other program staff. This support and evaluation occurs in a variety of ways across the duration of the EPIC Educator Preparation Program.

Ongoing Inquiry and Reflection

Teacher candidates are expected to engage in continual evaluation of their own teaching performance. Reflective observations maintained for the internship experience courses begin initially as an opportunity for careful consideration of lessons observed in field experience classrooms. As teacher candidates take on increasing responsibility for instruction, these records become a means of self-evaluation, professional inquiry, problem-posing, and critical analysis. As teacher candidates begin to plan and teach their own lessons, the opportunity to reflect is built directly into the lesson plan format. District Support Providers and EPIC Coaches read those lesson reflections when they visit the internship classroom, and are able to assist preliminary teacher candidates in further assessing their practices.
Ongoing Professional Conversation

EPP designated coaches are education experts handpicked for their professional knowledge and their dedication to mentoring and supporting the teacher candidates with whom they work. Teacher candidates will be engaged in ongoing professional conversations with these experienced supervisors during all of their internship.

These professional conversations will touch on all dimensions of teaching, including (but not limited to) curriculum decision making; unit and lesson planning; instructional strategies; classroom management; interaction with students; assessment of student learning; adaptation of instruction to meet the needs of English Learners, students with identified special needs, or students with other learning challenges; communication with students’ parents; and interaction with colleagues. In these professional conversations, teacher candidates should expect to request and to receive regular feedback about their teaching performance. This ongoing feedback provides teacher candidates with meaningful guidance that is grounded in the specific context of the internship classroom. Professional conversations may be initiated by the teacher candidate, District Support Providers, or EPP designated coach. Teacher candidates are strongly encouraged to take ownership of their own professional development by asking questions of their District Support Providers and EPP designated coach. Because the routine aspects of daily practice often feel natural and intuitive to experienced teachers, they cannot always foresee which of their routines, decisions, or procedures should be discussed or explained in more detail to their teacher candidates. Candidates are encouraged to ask their support providers questions about any aspect of teaching. All questions—no matter how silly or small they might seem—are worthy of attention, and responding thoughtfully to those questions is a central responsibility of District Support Providers and EPP designated coaches.

Formative Evaluations for Preliminary Credential Candidates

Formative evaluations are focused on providing immediate feedback that will strengthen and improve the teacher candidate’s instructional effectiveness. The preliminary teacher candidate will be observed a minimum of 6 times per semester during their intern year. The clear candidate will have weekly contact with their Coach for an average of 4 hours per month.

Summative Evaluations

Summative evaluations will be completed during the last two months of the internship placement to provide a big-picture assessment of the candidate’s accomplishments. The EPP designated coach completes the summative evaluation of the preliminary teacher candidate’s performance aligned with the competencies included in the California Teaching Performance Expectations. It will be a narrative evaluation of the teacher candidate’s performance designed to allow the District Support Providers and EPP designated coach to assist in documenting the candidate’s unique strengths and specific accomplishments as a beginning teacher. The EPP designated coach will complete summative evaluations of the clear teacher candidate aligned with the California Standard for the Teaching Profession.
Portfolio Overview

The education specialist has numerous responsibilities that lead to the improvement of student performance. By gaining the necessary skills, attitudes, and behaviors as outlined in the TPEs and CSTP, students have the best opportunity to acquire the knowledge and abilities required of classroom teachers in order to meet the expectations of high standards for student learning while achieving the mission and vision of the school and district. Inherent in these standards is a strong commitment to cultural diversity, inclusive practices and the use of technology.

One of the strengths of the Educational Preparation for Inclusive Programs ~ EPIC program is the reflective ePortfolio. It is a digital document that captures perspectives and reflections on student learning. The portfolio provides the participants with the opportunity to reflect on their face-to-face coursework and fieldwork activities. For Preliminary Candidates, the reflective ePortfolio integrates elements of the thirteen Teaching Performance Expectations. For Clear Candidates, it integrates the six standards for the teaching profession.

The purpose of the ePortfolio is to provide you with the opportunity to think about your coursework, fieldwork and learning plan to derive meaning from decisions made and actions completed. The portfolio is designed to have you present your current teaching experiences and to reflect on them in a manner that represents your thinking and learning. This is a requirement for all preliminary and clear credential candidates and is viewed as a significant part of your growth as an instructional leader.

Portfolio
Each candidate will create his/her own ePortfolio through their online platform. This is the location where each participant can upload documents and reflections. Participants will organize their Reflective ePortfolios based on the TPEs or CSTPs.

Coaches will provide you with guidance on what may be uploaded into your ePortfolio. Advisors, instructors, coaches, mentors, and directors will review the portfolios and provide feedback to participants, further enhancing the development of a learning community.

Leaders in Educational Administration

Program Description

Education Preparation for Equity, Inclusion, and Social Justice
The SCCOE Preliminary Administrative Services Program (PASC), is grounded in three dimensions: 1) Scholarship which consists of collection, analysis and utilization of data to improve performance; 2) Theory which incorporates the foundational principals of leadership such as organizational culture, communities of professional learning, systems thinking and adult learning theory; and 3) Practice which is the application, in the field, of the learned knowledge and skills.

Mission
The mission of the LEAP program is to prepare educational leaders to transform California schools, with particular emphasis on high priority, under performing schools and schools that experience high turnover of formal school leaders. The core elements of the LEAP program reflect this mission. The program includes a carefully developed curriculum which integrates course work, and field experiences and is designed for participants to demonstrate the ability to:

- Facilitate the development and implementation of a shared vision of learning and growth for all students
- Build and sustain a positive school culture focused on continuous improvement of teaching and learning, implementing a model of communities of practice
- Ensure safe, effective and equitable learning environments
- Create culturally proficient and responsive schools
- Motivate teacher growth, equity awareness and build leadership capacity
- Demonstrate the connection of school and community to a larger context

The LEAP PASC program is based in transformative learning theory as a means to provide applicable task-oriented and program solving opportunities for candidates to earn their preliminary administrative credential (Thompson, 2013). The program design reflects the belief that the best learning is job-embedded (Davis and Darling-Hammond, 2012). In addition to the required standards-based course work, all students will be responsible for creating an ePortfolio and for completing a Fieldwork project. The ePortfolio is a digital document that captures perspectives, reflections and evidence of student learnings.

Program Learning Outcomes
We deliver a cohesive and comprehensive curriculum which integrates coursework and field experiences based on the six standards of the California Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (CPSEL). These standards are now aligned to the California Administrator Performance Standards (CAPE). (See Appendix.)

- Successful completion of fieldwork and ePortfolio.

Coursework
The LEAP credentialing program hires faculty to deliver instruction and monitor candidates’ academic progress. Candidates are enrolled in a cohort and take classes over a 11-month period of time. All candidates are required to come prepared for class each night with a laptop or tablet to access course materials. The program is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged electronic devices.

Candidates must successfully complete the coursework and fieldwork and demonstrate growth towards meeting the California Administrative Performance Assessments (CAPEs) and the California Professional Standards for Educational Leadership (CPSELs) as well as other requirements of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) to be recommended for the Preliminary Services Administrative Credential.
Equity Principled Leadership

By design, the administrative services preparation program provides each candidate with an opportunity to understand and apply theories and principles of educational equity within the educational context, for the purposes of creating more socially just learning environments.

Equity is the solution where educational leaders identify and eliminate systemic barriers (instructional, policies, practices, perceptions), that prevent students access to a full educational experience, that can be measured through various educational outcomes.

Equity Principled Leadership is defined as follows:
Restorative and just, knowledge, skills and actions, applied to culturally and racially diverse educational communities to create inclusive, nondiscriminatory environments for adults and students.

Course Competencies
Course assessment methods will be created by the instructors of each course and will follow normal expected graduate-level assessments.

Participants will complete an ePortfolio, which will consist of signature assignments from each course, self-assessment on progress toward each standard, and evidence of completion of fieldwork.

Participants will participate in fieldwork projects. Fieldwork assignments are common across the program. Fieldwork will be supported by an assigned fieldwork supervisor through an investigate, plan, act, reflect process, and evidence of completion of fieldwork assignments will be uploaded into an ePortfolio on the Canvas learning management system. ePortfolio will be scored in the spring. Completion of the program is dependent upon a completed ePortfolio with a passing score.

Signature assignments are required at the end of each course and the requirements are identified on each course syllabus. In addition to being part of the course grade, signature assignments must be uploaded into the student’s ePortfolio and will be considered part of a completed ePortfolio at the end of the course. If a signature assignment is missing from the ePortfolio, the student will not be considered for program completion until all signature assignments are accounted for in the student’s ePortfolio.

Fieldwork and Portfolio Overview
The administrator at a school site has numerous responsibilities that lead to the improvement of student performance. By gaining the necessary skills, attitudes, and behaviors as outlined in the California Administrative Performance Expectations (CAPEs), students have the best opportunity to meet the expectations of high standards for student learning while achieving the mission and vision of the district. Inherent in these standards is a strong commitment to cultural diversity.
Fieldwork Objectives
Fieldwork is intended to:

• Provide candidates with hands-on experiences under the guidance of the Fieldwork supervisor
• Provide candidates a school-based and/or district-level context in which to develop leadership knowledge and skills
• Provide opportunities for the candidate to demonstrate competence in the California Content Standards and make connections between theory and practice
• Link academic coursework to authentic, practical leadership experiences in the field
• Provide support for the California Administrative Performance Assessment (CALAPA)

Components of Fieldwork and the ePortfolio

• Demonstrate evidence of your ability to develop and implement an equitable school vision
• Provide evidence of collaboration that shows how you have collaborated with others to meet the educational needs of all students
• Apply a model of investigate, plan, act, reflect to identify a problem of practice and develop a plan to address the identified area of need.

The ePortfolio is a digital space that captures perspectives and evidence of student learning. The purpose of the ePortfolio is to provide you with the opportunity to think about your coursework and derive meaning from decisions made and actions completed. The portfolio is designed to have you present your course experiences and to receive feedback from your instructors, fieldwork supervisors, and classmates in a manner that expands your thinking and learning. This is a requirement for all students and is viewed as a significant part of LEAP.

The ePortfolio will require you to upload the following activities completed with the support of your fieldwork supervisor and course instructor:

• Assessment of Proficiencies Pre and Post
• A one page bio and brief description of your current school context as you see it
• A current resume

• EDA 631: Visionary Leadership
  • Fieldwork Planning/Progress Update-Begin comprehensive investigation of the context at your school site/district
  • Course signature assignment

• EDA 632: Instructional Leadership
  • Fieldwork Planning/Progress Update-Comprehensive summary of the context at your school site and a plan for a community of practice around a specific problem of practice
  • Course signature assignment

• EDA 633: Professional Learning
  • Fieldwork Planning/Progress Update-Facilitate community of practice meetings, with agendas, minutes etc. and a narrative of group learning process
  • Course signature assignment
• EDA 634: Facilitating Teacher Growth
  ○ Course signature assignment

• EDA 635: Professional Learning and Ethics
  ○ Fieldwork Planning/Progress Update-Narrative of an improvement planning review and analysis, a one year improvement plan around a problem of practice and a reflective summary of the project
  ○ Course signature assignment

• EDA 636: Education, Politics, and Systems
  ○ Course signature assignment

Evaluation of Candidate Performance
Self-evaluation of candidate performance will be implemented twice a year. Once in the fall at least 90 days after the start of the program and again at the end of the year after the final course is completed. In addition fieldwork supervisors and instructors will monitor and evaluate candidate performance based on the grading scale.

Program Completion

Once you have completed the requirements, the Educator Preparation Programs staff will provide you with a letter of verification which will allow you to apply for the Certificate of Eligibility (COE). The COE memorializes the fact that you have met the requirements for the administrative services credential, which never expires.

Once you are offered an administrative leadership position, will need to obtain CTC Form CL-777, Verification of employment from your employer. Form 1098-T is a form provided by an eligible educational institution that reports, among other things, amounts paid for qualified tuition and related expenses. In general, a student must receive a Form 1098-T for each tax year to claim an education credit. Unfortunately, we are not considered an eligible educational institution by the IRS as we do not provide Federal Student Aid through our programs. Additionally, we do not have a Federal School Code, which is assigned by the Department of Education for schools participating in the Title IV federal student aid programs, which we do not participate in.

Learning Management System

CANVAS and Course Policies

- Class materials, resources, and assignment for each course, including fieldwork are housed in CANVAS. This includes fieldwork assignments, course syllabi and assignments, calendars of due dates, a message inbox, and gradebook. Students will submit assigned coursework and fieldwork and correspond with instructors and other course participants within Canvas.
- Each participant will be guided to create a SCCOE Canvas account with a secure password to access the materials and assignments during orientation.
- It is the responsibility of the student to check course requirements, notifications and review the assignments in CANVAS.

Written Assignments

As a leader it is important to develop professional communication habits including writing for different audiences. The courses you are taking are graduate level courses. It is an expectation that written assignments citing research will be written in a scholarly fashion and meet APA style format guidelines. APA style guide and information will be posted in CANVAS to support you. Your course instructors will also provide support in class. All written assignments must be typed using appropriate spacing, font size and margins. Work must be submitted free of grammatical errors, spelling polished and publish-ready.

Writing Clinic

The Writing Clinic is offered as a support to assist candidates with meeting program requirements and professional expectations. One of the first writing assignments in your credential program will be reviewed for quality as it pertains to grammar, presentation, flow of ideas, and graduate level thinking. Those candidates whose writing is deemed at risk of not meeting writing competencies for the program will be referred to a Writing Clinic. Participation in the clinic is not required however, it is strongly recommended that those referred, participate. Failure to meet writing competencies can have an impact on your grades and your successful completion of the CAL-APA or ES-TPA.
Class Attendance

A core concept of the program is the contribution of individual candidates and that of the collective cohort. In addition to learning content, and so that they may contribute insight, experience, and reflection, candidates must attend each class meeting. Instructor facilitation, presentations, classroom exercise, and discussions are essential parts of the educational experience for each class: therefore, students must attend all meetings of the class. Prompt attendance will have a direct impact on learning, performance, and grades. If a candidate must miss a class due to illness, etc., the candidate must contact the faculty prior to not attending class.

Should an unforeseen event (family emergency, illness, etc.) occur, contact the instructor AND program coordinator immediately. Each absence will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Two tardies or leaving early (15 minutes or more) is the equivalent of one absence.

Attendance and participation points cannot be redeemed through make-up work.

Each faculty member will implement the attendance policy understanding that: (1) attendance is a priority, and (2) the second absence may result in dismissal from class. A consistent problem with attendance may result in dismissal from the program.

LEAP STUDENTS ONLY - With your instructor you will determine which cohort you will attend to make-up the missed class. This could mean attending one full-day on Saturday or two night sessions on Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday. When this is not possible a 5-7 page research paper may be assigned or you will have to retake the class the following year.

Grading Policies

All courses are expected to be completed at mastery level. Faculty is solely responsible for the determination of course grades and grading criteria needs to be clearly defined on the course syllabus, including the effect of attendance on the final course grade.

Candidates suspected of plagiarism may be reported to the CTC and put their credential at risk.

ADA Accommodations
Students with disabilities are eligible for reasonable accommodations in their academic work in this program. In order to receive assistance, the student must provide Program Administrators with documentation that describes the specific disability (i.e. psychologist, physician, or educational diagnostician). Students with disabilities should contact Program Administration to discuss academic and other needs as soon as they are diagnosed with a disability. Once documentation is on file, arrangements for reasonable accommodations can be made.

The meeting will be scheduled by the student with the Directors to review and discuss concerns and determine next steps. Another meeting may be scheduled to further discuss the situation. Following discussion and review of the concern with Administration, a decision will be made regarding the grievance. The decision will be final and will be forwarded to the participant.

General Emergency Procedures
In the event of an emergency occurring during class time, candidates shall be required to stay with the class until directed otherwise by the Faculty in order to make sure that all students are safe and accounted for. My Name, My Identity

A Declaration of Self

The Educator Preparation Programs is committed to the MY NAME, MY IDENTITY Campaign. The campaign—a partnership between the National Association for Bilingual Education, the Santa Clara, Calif., County Office of Education, and the California Association for Bilingual Education—focuses on the fact that a name is more than just a name: It's one of the first things children recognize, one of the first words they learn to say, it's how the world identifies them.

This Campaign asks “What does your name mean to you, your family, and the rest of the world?” Since each of us is unique, our name is tied to our identity. We would not wish to have our names changed or mispronounced. If you believe that all students have the right to be called by the names that represent their identity and culture, begin by asking them how they would like their names to be pronounced. As a program and as a global citizen we collectively agree to respect students’ names.

As our world becomes increasingly connected, cross-cultural communication increases. We interact with more people from diverse backgrounds and experiences, many with different languages and ethnicities. Having the ability to effectively communicate with others who are different from ourselves opens up possibilities for deeper understanding and friendship based on mutual respect. It is also an essential skill in the 21st century.

School is a community, which prepares our students to succeed in the global world. To be an effective member of this global world, we can model respect for each other in the school community by learning about each other’s stories, our unique names, and their proper pronunciations.

Please join SCCOE and the Educator Preparation Programs and take the pledge today at https://www.mynamemyidentity.org/campaign/pledge

Commitment and Sustainability

We are committed to ensuring that our collective work is sustained over time.
Person Centered Language

Attached is a handout on the use of Person First Language which is an excellent rule of thumb: When in doubt, put the word person first, particularly when referring to people with disabilities. But identity is complex and there are always exceptions. Like the My Name, My Identity Campaign, the best thing to do is to remember that everyone has the right to define themselves in whatever way feels best and most authentic to them.

We can all agree that you generally shouldn’t use a disability, a condition, a diagnosis, or even an identity as the only way to describe a person because it can dehumanize people by using an aspect of themselves as a stand-in for their personhood.

Person-first language set out to assure that we don’t demean, dehumanize, or stigmatize people by way of the language you use to describe them. Person-centered language builds on person-first language and folds in personal identity. It reminds us that the point is to put the actual person first—to remember that all people are people and should be treated as the first and foremost experts on themselves.

So What Term Should Be Used??
How can I refer generally to a group of people who don’t all use the same words?”

The answer is that there’s no simple or quick fix. Instead of seeking the perfect phrase that will avoid offense, we have to be willing to explore what will create the most respect and care in any particular situation. Here are some best practices:

- Be clear: Sometimes we use broad language when more specific words would be better, and vice versa. For example, if your context is wheelchair-accessible ramps, you can say “people with limited mobility” rather than “disabled people.”

- Be creative: You don’t need to find a single word or term. You can say things like “autistic people and people with autism” and explain why you are doing so.

- Be humble: If you feel reactive, defensive, or anxious, explore your feelings and consider how you can work to fully respect folks who use different language than you do.

- Be respectful: Remember that the point is to care about the people you are referring to and honor their personhood and agency.

- Be curious: Consult different sources, particularly groups and organizations led by the folks you’re referring to, to see what language they use and why.

There is no one “correct” answer. The invitation of person-centered language is to value a caring and complicated approach rather than searching for a pat solution.

A Pledge of Respect for Students with Disabilities

All students, especially students with disabilities, have the right to dignity and respect. The Americans with Disabilities Act states that “Americans with disabilities… are entitled to the same rights and freedoms as everybody else: a right to belong and participate fully in the American experience; a right to dignity and respect in the workplace and beyond…. ” Students with disabilities have a right to be respected as a whole person and not be judged by just their disability.

To ensure this right of respect, I will use respectful language in the form of person-first terminology in my communications. I pledge to:

- Place the student first before the disability
  - A child with autism, instead of an autistic child
- Place groups of students first before the disability
  - Students in special education, instead of special education students
- Use respectful terms when referring to peer groups
  - Students without disabilities instead of typical students
- Model back person-first terminology when others do not use it
  - When someone says, “special education students…” just continue the conversation by modeling back, “yes…. students in special education…”
- Inform others about person-first terminology
  - Remember that changing the way we speak is a process and takes time

For more information about person-first terminology, please contact the Inclusion Collaborative at (408) 453-6756 or visit www.inclusioncollaborative.org

SCCOE’s Educator Preparation Programs

Teach-Out Process

Introduction

This manual is a compilation of the memoranda of instructions, templates, guidelines and other tools designed to ensure a systematic and successful teach-out, enabling students to complete terminated programs.
SCCOE’s Educator Preparation Programs

Guidelines for Suspended and Terminated Credential Programs

Under the guidelines of SCCOE’s accrediting agency, the Commission on Teaching Credentialing, when closing a program, “a teach out plan, which includes individual transition plans for each candidate as well as a plan for candidates and graduates to access their student records would need to be developed”. The SCCOE is committed to assisting students affected by the program terminations and is making every effort to formulate procedures that minimize the impact on students.

Course offerings will continue for at most two academic years for all the credential programs.

ALL CREDENTIAL PROGRAMS

- Prospective students with active applications awaiting admission decisions to an affected program:
  - Immediately suspend admission of new students and advise students to seek alternative credentialing agencies

- Currently enrolled students in a terminated program
  - Will be informed formally by letter and email
  - Will meet with an advisor individually to develop a transition plan which will include
    - An academic plan that enables him/her to complete the program requirements within the teach out period
    - Directions as to how to download and access their student records
  - Students should take a sufficient number of courses to enable them to complete all requirements within the “teach out” period.
  - Students who do not make adequate progress on their academic plan for teach out will be advised into another credential as applicable
  - Course offerings will continue for at most two academic years (teach out period).
  - Students are required to have ongoing contact with their academic/faculty advisors during this time to ensure that their academic plan is current and consistent with the projected course offerings.
  - Students unable to comply with the time limits should seek an alternative program.
Sample Template for Notifying Students in Terminated Credentials

Dear ____________________

You are currently enrolled as a student in (state level, name of credential program and specialization, if applicable, e.g. Preliminary Education Specialist Moderate-Severe) credential program. We regret that it is therefore no longer feasible to continue offering this program. The Santa Clara County Office of Education (SCCOE) is, however, committed to enabling students who are already in the program the opportunity to complete the program and obtain their credential.

The program will have a teach out period of (state number of years), ending in (state month and year in which the teach out period will end) to enable you to complete the program requirements. You must meet all requirements to be recommended for the credential by the end of the teach-out period. It is your responsibility to complete a sufficient number of required courses each quarter or year to enable you to complete the program in the time allotted. The program faculty and advisors will also assist students with identifying comparable programs to which they may wish to transfer, in the event they cannot complete the program at SCCOE during the teach out period.

Please work closely with your advisor and program faculty to ensure you are aware of all program requirements and the availability of required courses. You will be provided an academic plan which, if followed, will enable you to complete the degree program within the teach out period. They will do their utmost to assist you. The SCCOE wants to ensure that the investment you made in an SCCOE education and credential bears the intended results.

Please make an appointment immediately to meet with your advisor. We are committed to serving you and helping you complete your credential program.

Sincerely,

I have received and reviewed my academic map which will help me to complete my credential program within the teach-out period. I understand it is my responsibility to complete the program and meet all requirements for recommendation within the teach-out period.
I have been notified of the process for attaining and copying my student records prior to the end of the teach-out period. I will continue to have access to all records submitted in Ceasar, the student enrollment and records system, during the teach-out period. I will need to download and copy any student records within Ceasar prior to the end of the teach-out period should I want a permanent copy.
