

Attention teachers and other credentialed staff!
 Enroll Now in Educator Preparation Programs
 Preliminary Administrative Services Credential (PASC) program & take part in our Bring A Friend Incentive!

Bring a Friend & you and your friend both receive $200 off of PASC tuition

Both candidates must apply and be accepted into our PASC
 program for the fall 2021-2022 school year.
 Candidates must be brand new applicants.

EPPSCHOLAR.SCCOE.ORG

The PASC curriculum is based on the California Administrative Professional Expectations (CAPES) and the California Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (CPSELs). Our course instructors maintain current knowledge and leadership practice through training and ongoing support and services in local schools and districts. Upon successful completion of the PASC program, participants will be eligible to apply for their Preliminary Administrative Services Credential or their Certificate of Eligibility for their credential.

Earn your Preliminary Administrative Services Credential	Affordable Price: $6,900 tuition cost, paid per course -Payment plans available	Complete in 11 months
Instructed by current and former school superintendents, administrators, and prominent educational leaders.	Equity principled leadership is embedded in all coursework and fieldwork.	Dedicated and responsive staff. We're here to help!

Educator Preparation Programs (EPP), is a CTC accredited alternative credentialing agency, based out of the Santa Clara County Office of Education. Contact us at epp@sccoe.org or 408-453-4259

My name is Kalpana Thatte and I am the EPP Program Coordinator & Student Adviser. I'm here to answer your questions.

Click Here to Book an Appointment with Me!

