SCCBOE narrows search for new superintendent

SAN JOSE, CA – The Santa Clara County Board of Education (SCCBOE) has narrowed its search to select a new leader to head the Santa Clara County Office of Education (SCCOE). The Board interviewed several candidates this past weekend and identified a sole finalist for the position.

“There were several excellent applicants for the position representing a great diversity of backgrounds and experience,” said Board President Leon Beauchman. “On behalf of the Board, I thank the Search Committee for its commitment and contribution to the process,” Beauchman said.

The next step in the process is for the Board to make a site visit with the finalist before making a final determination. The name of the finalist will be announced by the Board following the site visit and a formal vote to approve its decision. The prospective start date of the new Superintendent will be determined as part of the employment contract negotiations.
