

MEDIA ADVISORY

For immediate release
March 10, 2016

Contact: Ken Blackstone
(408) 453-6514

Santa Clara County Office of Education Paraeducators' 2016 Conference

SAN JOSE, CA – Paraeducators from the Santa Clara County Office of Education’s (SCCOE) more than 60 special education classroom sites will come together Saturday, March 12 for the Paraeducators' 2016 Conference. Paraeducators are classroom professionals who generally work under the supervision of a teacher. They assist with one-on-one academic support, classroom management and a host of other vital responsibilities. The conference is a unique opportunity for paraeducators to network and receive professional development in areas such as student engagement, technology in the classroom and effective collaboration with colleagues. SCCOE Special Education Director Norma Del Rio will deliver a keynote address on the topic of “Teamwork in the Classroom.”

What: Santa Clara County Office of Education Paraeducators' 2016 Conference

When: Saturday, March 12, 2016

Time: 8:30 a.m.-12 p.m.

Location: Erickson School
4849 Pearl Avenue
San Jose, CA 95136

Parking

- Ample parking is available in the Erickson School lot. Arrive early for best selection.

For more information:

- Visit the Special Education department online.
- Call 408-453-6542