EQUITY | DIVERSITY | INCLUSION | PARTNERSHIP

International Day of Non-Violence is observed on October 2 and World Day of Bullying Prevention is observed on October 5.

The National Traumatic Stress Network has compiled a list of helpful resources for parents and caregivers, children and teens, mental health providers, educators and school staff, and policy makers.

The Santa Clara County Office of Education provides additional support through:

- SCCOE LGBTQ+ Resources
- Inclusion Collaborative
- Multi-Tiered Systems of Support \(MTSS\)
- SCCOE PBIS Resources
- SCCOE Wellness Program

Additionally, California offers free mental health resources through:

- BrightLife Kids for children up to 12 years old,
- Soluna App which provides confidential support for ages 13 to 25.

Promoting kindness is another practice to support nonviolence and address bullying.

Simple acts of kindness include:

- Holding the door open for someone
- Giving someone a compliment
- Donating books to a school, library, a friend or a neighbor
- Picking up litter
- Sharing toys with siblings or friends
- Donating old clothes
- Leaving a kind note for a stranger, colleague or friend

Health and Wellness

SmileFirst Program

SmileFirst Program from the Healthier Kids Foundation is a 30-minute virtual oral health workshop for families with children.

Santa Clara County Oral Health Program

This October, set healthy routines with your children, starting with brushing, flossing, and reading to them every night. The County's Oral Health Program promotes the American Academy of Pediatrics' bedtime routine called, "Brush, Book, Bed." Children do better with routines, and this routine helps keep their mouths healthy! Read a book about visiting the dentist to help relieve potential anxiety about appointments. Talk about ways to keep their teeth clean with healthy foods and less sugar.
