District Leadership Convening:
Immigration Enforcement Preparedness & School Community Support

This regional convening is being organized by the Santa Clara County Office of Education in partnership with the County Office of Immigrant Relations and community partners, including the Immigrant Parent Education Network (IPEN) and the Amigos de Guadalupe Center for Justice and Empowerment.

The convening is intended to support school districts in preparing for and responding to immigration enforcement actions that may impact students and families, while strengthening coordinated systems of care across education and community sectors.

Walden West Outdoor School
75th Anniversary Celebration

PAST, PRESENT AND GROWING FORWARD

Saturday, April 25
5:00 - 9:00 PM

Walden West Outdoor School
15555 Sanborn Rd, Saratoga

In partnership with the
Walden West Foundation

Through this celebration, we will reflect on our journey through the lens of our theme: “Past, Present, and Growing Forward.” It will honor the generations of students and teachers who have come to the mountains, the vibrant environmental literacy we facilitate today, and our shared commitment to growing the next generation of scientifically literate, conservation-minded leaders.

This is a free, ticketed event for current and former staff members, attending teachers, principals, superintendents, and community partners (all guests must RSVP). While it will be an evening filled with camp fun, this event is for adults only! Donations are encouraged and appreciated.
