

Message from the County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Dewan

Greetings everyone,

Last Friday, we commemorated the National Day of Remembrance in honor of those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001, and their families and loved ones. We also paid tribute to our nation, healing from the loss on that day and in the aftermath, and will recommit to use this somber memory as an opportunity to remind ourselves of the immeasurable value of life and freedom.

September is also the designated month when we observe National Suicide Prevention Awareness. During this month, mental health advocates, prevention organizations, survivors, allies, and community members unite to promote suicide prevention awareness. Many have experienced tremendous loss due to the pandemic, wildfires, and other catastrophic events we have weathered this year. Feelings of frustration, depression, loneliness, and anxiety may become overwhelming, but there is support available; if you or someone you know needs help, Santa Clara County offers assistance through Behavioral Services. For more information about how to obtain assistance, please contact: Santa Clara County Behavioral Services, Crisis 24/7 Hotline 1-855-278-4204. In the spirit of community, it is imperative that we take care of each other and lend a supportive hand to those in need.

Although September brings to light crucial issues that have a tremendous impact on our well-being as individuals and a nation, it also celebrates many important events. September 15th, is the launch of National Hispanic Heritage Month. Historically, the SCCOE board has unanimously passed resolutions highlighting each year's theme and the contributions that Hispanic Americans are making within the county, state, and nation. The 2020 theme for National Hispanic Heritage Month is, "Hispanics: Be Proud of Your Past and Embrace Your Future", and brings focus to the essential contributions made by the Hispanic Americans - those who have ancestors who come from Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean, Central America, and South America – in all aspects of the formation of our country.

As a reminder, when you move through your activities for this week, please make your personal well-being and safety a priority and support each other. This is how we will continue to stay strong together.

Be well,

Mary Ann Dewan, Ph.D
County Superintendent of Schools

Continuity of Learning Playbooks

The two playbooks were created to assist LEA leaders planning for teaching and learning in this new COVID-19 context: the Distance Learning Playbook and the Hybrid Learning Playbook. Each suggests nine areas of focus to guide planning: setting goals, creating schedules, communicating with families, assessing student needs, supporting social-emotional learning, building capacity, supporting English language learners, supporting students with special needs, and leveraging ancillary programs. Both offer practical, easy-to-understand resources, tools, and tips for leadership teams to consider adopting. As equity should underline everything we do as educators, we offer equity considerations throughout. Click here for the playbooks.

Public Health Updates

Mandatory Directive for Schools

On July 17, 2020, the State Health Officer ordered the closure of all in-person instruction at schools in counties on the State's monitoring list (including Santa Clara County), except for elementary schools that obtain a waiver from the local health officer. On August 25, 2020, the State released additional guidance allowing schools to bring small cohorts of students on campus for supervision, limited instruction, targeted support services, and facilitation of distance learning. On August 28, 2020, the State released a new framework for restrictions on certain activities, including in-person operations at schools.

See the State's Blueprint for a Safer Economy at:
<https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CID/DCDC/Pages/COVID-19/COVID19CountyMonitoringOverview.aspx>.

Under this new framework, schools in counties in Tier 1 remain closed, except for elementary schools that obtain a waiver from the local health officer. When a county enters Tier 2, all schools in that county may resume in-person instruction 14 days later.

This directive supplements the State requirements for schools and describes the process for schools to resume in-person instruction in Santa Clara County.

Santa Clara County Downgrades to Red Tier

Santa Clara County is at the Red Risk Level under the State's new COVID-19 reopening framework. That means certain activities can resume, and certain businesses can reopen indoor operations at reduced capacity. Some indoor businesses and activities are still too high risk to allow at this time, however, and the local order and directives ensure that people who live in the county are protected from these risks. For example, movie theaters, indoor gatherings, and indoor dining are not yet permitted to reopen under Santa Clara County's Order. Remember to follow the more restrictive set of rules. Continue to keep your distance, wear your mask, and get tested.

More details at click here.

The infographic is titled "Santa Clara County is at Red Risk Level". It is divided into two main sections: "Allowed indoors:" and "Not currently allowed to resume operation under the County Order:". The "Allowed indoors:" section lists: Nail salons, Body waxing salons, Tattoo and piercing parlors, K-12 Schools (after being 14 days in Red), Museums, zoos and aquariums at 25% capacity, Gyms and fitness centers at 10% capacity, and Malls can increase capacity to 50% (opened at 25% in Purple). The "Not currently allowed..." section lists: Movie theaters, Indoor dining, and Indoor gatherings. At the bottom, it states "Counties can move to a less restrictive level as COVID transmission goes down and testing goes up. Stay diligent about keeping your distance, wearing your mask, getting tested, and following all protocols and directives." It includes icons for a mask, "6 ft" distance, and a test tube. A red button at the bottom says "Our website has detailed information: sccgov.org/cv19order".

Gov. Newsom Unveils Statewide Blueprint for a Safer Economy

The Statewide Blueprint builds on lessons learned from the first six months of the disease – and the new scientific understanding that has been collected – to create a new system for regulating movement and COVID-19 transmissions. It includes:

- At least 21 days to expand activities beyond the initial tier to ensure California better limits the spread of the virus;
- Mandatory metrics – case rates and test positivity – to measure how widespread COVID-19 is in each county and guide what is allowed;
- A uniform state framework, with four categories instead of 58 different sets of rules;
- A more nuanced way of allowing activity: Instead of open vs. closed, sectors can be partially opened and progressively add to their operations as disease transmission decreases; and
- A new process for tightening back up again quickly when conditions worsen. Based on how prevalent COVID-19 is in each county and the extent of community spread. That color will indicate how sectors can operate.

Based on the extent of the community spread of COVID-19 in each county, a corresponding color indicates how sectors can operate.

WIDESPREAD	Many non-essential indoor business operations are closed
SUBSTANTIAL	Some non-essential indoor business operations are closed
MODERATE	Some indoor business operations are open with modifications
MINIMAL	Most indoor business operations are open with modifications

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Guidance

Emerging evidence suggests a significant number of people may be infected with COVID-19 who are asymptomatic and capable of spreading the virus to others. People are now considered to be infectious 48 hours before the start of their symptoms until their isolation period ends. This makes social distancing and frequent hand washing even more critical.
