January 9, 16, 23, 30, February 6, 13, 2020 • 10:30 a.m. to noon

Active Parenting is a six-session workshop series for parents of preadolescents and adolescents in 6th - 8th grades. Using a culturally sensitive manner, parents learn about the developmental needs of adolescents, effective communication, and other strategies they can use to help their teens develop into responsible and courageous adults.

Topics include:

- Parenting the Strong Willed-Child
- Parental Influence
- Encouraging Positive Choices
- Redirecting Negative Choices
- Structuring for Success
- Improving School Performance
- CCSS Literacy/Mathematics Support
