

Use Movement and Music to Improve Language Arts Instruction!

Create Engaging, Multi-Modal Classroom Experiences!

Active engagement with music can impact the way that the brain processes information, enhancing the perception of language and speech, and subsequently improving our ability to communicate with others and learn to read (Hallam, 2010; Bokiev, Bokiev, Aralas, Ismail, & Othman, 2018).

Teachers will learn to incorporate musical techniques such as call-and-response, simple rhythms, chants, and finger plays to increase experiential learning opportunities, and facilitate language acquisition.
