How Language Works Boot Camp:
Understanding the ELD and CCSS ELA Language Standards

Dates
(sign up for any of the one-day sessions)
November 3, 2016
February 2, 2017
April 13, 2017

Time
8:30 AM — 3:00 PM

Lots of language = Lots of FUN!
Participants will:
▶ Develop a deeper understanding of what language development entails, as described in Part II of the English Language Development (ELD) Standards and in the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) English Language Arts (ELA) Language Standards.
▶ Have opportunities to practice analyzing language at the text level, sentence/clause level, phrase level, and word level. Connections with related standards and strategies for teaching the language concepts described will be emphasized throughout. Language concepts will be applied to a variety of content areas (ELA, history-social studies, science, and mathematics).

Topics include: text structure & cohesion, register, independent vs. dependent clauses, compound vs. complex sentences, coordinating vs. subordinating conjunctions, noun & prepositional phrases, derivational vs. inflectional affixes, and nominalization

Registration Information:
Fee: $85 per person (includes training materials)
Funds may be available for participants from SCC Program Improvement Districts or Schools through SCCOE. Please contact david_kennedy@sccoe.org or (408) 453-6982.
