The Santa Clara County Office of Education and San Mateo County Office of Education present the

15th ANNUAL SUMMER CAMP 2017

AUGUST 8, 2017

Our one-day camp returns with Professional Learning for School Library Staff, Grades K-12

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:
Valerie Lewis and Walter Mayes Share New Favorites
Valerie and Walter have worked together since 1981 recommending children’s books to parents, schools, and libraries. Valerie is an author and the co-owner of Hicklebee’s Books. Walter Mayes is the Librarian at The Girls’ Middle School in Palo Alto, and advocates for children and books across the country as a writer, storyteller, seminar presenter, and lecturer. Join us as our morning Keynote Speakers share the best new children’s and YA books.

Conference Workshop Highlights

> Developing Bilingual Libraries
> Bringing the Arts to Life in the Library
> Using Picture Books to Teach Math
> Dive into Diversity
> Makerspaces & an Hour of Code
> SDC Storytime
> Activate Your Books
> Working Together to Build a Growth Mindset
> Nonfiction Story Time
> Your Library: the Largest Inclusive Classroom on Campus
> Google SuperPowers for Your School Library
> Escape Rooms and Interactive Stations in the Library
> 21st Century Fun Activities from Our Library to Yours
> My Name, My Identity

Session Descriptions and Online Registration

http://santaclara.k12oms.org/1056-132331

For more information, see:
www.sccoe.org/depts/library