

Opioid Overdose Prevention

The Santa Clara County Library District, in partnership with the Santa Clara County Behavioral Health Services Department, is proud to offer training for our community members about how to recognize an opioid overdose and how to safely administer the nasal spray Naloxone (commonly known as Narcan).

In addition to this critical information, participants who complete this one-hour training will be given a free limited number of Naloxone dosages (while supplies last).
Register at: scclid.org/opioid-overdose

Registration Required
Register at scclid.org/Events or scan code

CAMPBELL LIBRARY

8/17 from 7:00 – 8:00 pm

CUPERTINO LIBRARY

7/12 from 1:00 – 2:00 pm

GILROY LIBRARY

8/16 from 7:00 – 8:00 pm

LOS ALTOS LIBRARY

8/5 from 1:30 – 2:30 pm

MILPITAS LIBRARY

7/8 from 2:00 – 3:00 pm

MORGAN HILL LIBRARY

8/8 from 6:00 – 7:00 pm

SARATOGA LIBRARY

9/9 from 1:00 – 2:00 pm