

Name _____

Date _____

Word	Meaning	Example(s)	Image
risk noun	(n) the chance that something _____ might happen	Students take risks when they cheat on tests such as _____.
risk verb	(v) to put something in a situation where something could _____ it	Gamblers risk their money when they enter high-stakes games at _____.
risky adjective	(adj) quite _____	At the Fourth of July celebration, teens engaged in risky behavior including _____.

 Verbal Practice (Think-Pair-Share-Write):

If you purchase a used car, there is a risk that it will _____

 Writing Practice (Think-Write-Pair-Share):

Fire fighters _____ their lives entering burning buildings to _____

Their profession is _____ because they work in dangerous situations such as _____

Word	Meaning	Example(s)	Image
significant sig•nif•i•cant adjective	1. important 2. a large _____ of something	The election of Barack Obama as president was a significant _____ in U.S. history.
significantly sig•nif•i•cant•ly adverb	greatly; to a _____ degree	Teens need a significant amount of _____ in order to function during first period. Drinking water instead of _____ significantly reduces cavities in young children.

 Verbal Practice (Think-Pair-Share-Write):

One of the most _____ inventions in the past 100 years is _____

I typically have a _____ amount of homework for my _____ class.

 Writing Practice (Think-Write-Pair-Share):

The number of people worldwide viewing television on-line has increased _____ due to _____