

Jeffrey Baier
Superintendent

As our school district continues to re-open for in-person learning, I am in awe of the amazing work of our teachers and staff. Their passion for education, support for all students and commitment to providing excellent instruction in both distance and in-person learning models is incredible. I am so grateful for our entire educational team's collaboration and hard work to ensure our students receive an excellent education in these stressful and unprecedented times.

