

Lisa Ketchum

Organization Development

Champions for Leadership
June 21, 2011

Goals

1. Enhance career / interpersonal skills
2. Increase contributions toward the success of my programs, department, branch, and the COE
3. Explore career paths and academic opportunities
4. Develop a Foster Grandparent classroom resource guide (my project)

Accomplishments

- ✓ Attended all nine CFL seminars & Association of California Schools Administrators' (ACSA) Personnel Administrators Academy (twenty-one seminars)
- ✓ Used my creative innovation
- ✓ Applied for MS/Admin Credential
- ✓ Developed Foster Grandparent resource guide (my project)

Foster Grandparent Resource Guide

Successes

1. Mentee/Mentor relationship
2. Completion of the Champions for Leadership Program
3. Cross departmental and organizational project

Leadership is a Movement

Key Learnings

- To be a good Leader, I must first be a courageous follower
- It's important to nurture your followers and be easy to follow
- The hardest experiences are often the most helpful
- When you find a lone nut doing something great, have the guts to be the first to stand up and join in

Thank you.