Message from Dr. Mary Ann Dewan, County Superintendent of Schools

Dear Santa Clara County Community,

Every person has the right to live as their authentic self and to feel safe in every environment. National Coming Out Day, October 11, and National Bullying Prevention Day, October 12, are great reminders that practicing kindness, creating inclusive spaces, and being an advocate can make all the difference for youth.

Coming out is a courageous act that can be stressful for the person acknowledging their identity. It is important to listen actively, openly, and lovingly when a person is coming out. Being an ally also means being an advocate by standing up and speaking against words and actions that can hurt others.

It is essential that youth have trusted allies in their lives that can support and guide them through their journey of self-discovery without judgment. Here are some tips for creating inclusive and safe spaces for youth:

- Respect their pronouns by using preferred pronouns.
- Model and advocate for inclusive language.
- Create welcoming spaces for everyone.
- Be an upstander against bullying.
- See something, say something.
- Keep the lines of communication open.

Celebrate the youth in the community who are making brave efforts to be who they are every day. Together, we can model kindness and celebrate what makes each of us unique.
We are #StrongerTogether.

Be well,

Mary Ann Dewan, Ph.D.
County Superintendent of Schools
