

Message from the SCCOE Superintendent, Dr. Dewan

Hello Everyone-

This new school year signals a new chapter in education for our schools. It also represents new beginnings for all of us as we continue to learn how to manage all of the changes in our daily lives and remain vigilant with our risk reducing hygiene practices like hand washing, wearing face covers, and physical distancing.

The Santa Clara County Office of Education remains dedicated to our advocacy of inclusion, equity, and the abolishment of systemic racism, proving that we are stronger together through our partnerships with community leaders and districts. On Monday, August 3rd, we took a step to demonstrate our shared commitment to equity, by celebrating the lives, work, and pride of the LGBTQ community with an official flag raising ceremony streamed live from our offices at the Ridder Park location on the SCCOE's Facebook page. Flag raising has a long history of symbolizing unity and solidarity. This symbol represents our support of LGBTQ values, history and life as well as support for LGBTQ students and their families. Be Well,

Dr. Mary Ann Dewan
