Weekly Round-Up

COVID-19
AUGUST 19, 2020

EQUITY | DIVERSITY | INCLUSION | PARTNERSHIP

Message from the County Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Dewan

Hello everyone,

In this new school year, much has changed within the landscape of our traditional sense of education, and we are committed to serve in the best possible way. Helping students and families adjust to new ways of learning is a constant and immediate reminder of how the education landscape has transformed before our eyes and how, despite the numerous challenges, we continue to show tremendous effort and resilience. While transitions are often challenging and may seem impossible at first, they teach us how to prepare for new growth and life experiences, and they provide us with lessons that we carry into the future. Your flexibility in this new learning environment and your resilience are inspiring.

I hope each of you also take some time for wellness and self-care. Perhaps now, more than ever, it has become crucial to maintain one's self-care routines, being sure to include risk-reducing hygiene practices like hand washing frequently, wearing face covers properly, and physical distancing that ensure the health and safety of others, too.

Be well!

Dr. Mary Ann Dewan
County Superintendent of Schools

The Power of Blended Learning from the SCCOE

The SCCOE offers a variety of online courses for educators that support learning in the current environment through the use of technology and innovative best practices. We are pleased to release The Power of Blended Learning! This course highlights the considerations classroom teachers should address when preparing for a blended learning environment. When best practices are adhered to, blended learning provides students greater personalization in their learning. Whether addressing learning during a health crisis or natural disaster or looking for strategies that best serve student learning at any time, this course will guide you through the pedagogy and applications that engage your students in content and skills.

The course is free and self-paced, approximately eight hours in length, and includes resources you can use to extend your learning. It qualifies for one unit of graduate credit from University of Pacific at $80.

If you are interested in experiencing The Power of Blended Learning in e-book format (not as a course), access it at bit.ly/blendedsccoe

California Collaborative for Educational Excellence-CCEE

Distance Learning Resources

Free online modules to support the transition to distance learning. Presented by experienced e-learning educators, the Distance Learning Strategies series introduces topics for administrative teams preparing to design and implement distance learning plans to meet local needs to support teachers and expedite student access to online instruction. Each module is 60 minutes and introduces a distance learning topic and effective strategies for implementation. Click here to access these great resources.

Continuity of Learning Playbooks

The two playbooks were created to assist LEA leaders planning for teaching and learning in this new COVID-19 context: the Distance Learning Playbook and the Hybrid Learning Playbook. Each suggests nine areas of focus to guide planning: setting goals, creating schedules, communicating with families, assessing student needs, supporting social-emotional learning, building capacity, supporting English language learners, supporting students with special needs, and leveraging ancillary programs. Both offer practical, easy-to-understand resources, tools, and tips for leadership teams to consider adopting. As equity should underline everything we do as educators, we offer equity considerations throughout. Click here for the playbooks.

#Comeback California

Comeback California is a campaign designed by CCEE to spotlight local educational agencies' (LEAs) collaborative approaches to getting California's students back to school. It focuses on sharing tools, resources, and practices to leverage partnerships and facilitate dialogue among LEAs to support each other during the pandemic. Find out more here.
